MESSAGE RECAP

Jonah is a book that can really strike at our hearts. It is a reminder that we are prone to rebel from God. We often want God's blessing and salvation but push against his control over our lives. Such was the case of Jonah. He felt he had a right to not go to Nineveh because of his great hatred for them.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Dr. Randy Smith said, "When I forget who God really is, I live like he is not watching." Put this in your own words. How do we remind ourselves of who God really is?
2. Do you agree that our rebellion against God always impacts another person?
3. Who is your Ninevite? What person or people group do you have the most difficulty in taking the love of Christ?
