SUNDAY SERVICE 8-28-22

RECAP:

Psalm 91:1-2 says,

"He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High
will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.
I will say to the Lord, "My refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust."

Even Christians may feel insecure in this painful world, but God is our shelter and protection. The Lord will fulfill his plan in the life of a believer!

REFLECTION:

1. Do you appreciate what the Lord has done for you in life? How has God been faithful to you?
2. Do you have a tendency to focus on life 'here and now' or do you think more about the 'life to come'? (As we get older we tend to think of heaven more, don't we?)
3. Is there a struggle, fear or insecurity you are facing right now that you need to ask God to take and provide you with His peace instead?
4. FAMILY QUESTION: Knowing that we are under the pinions (wings) and shadow of God's protection (just like a mother bird protects her babies), how does that make you feel when you face tough times in life?
